

M. Masaya Seltzer

ASSOCIATE

masaya.seltzer@faberlawgroup.com

212 230 5756 direct

he/him

Industry Experience

Senior Contracts Specialist

NYU School of Medicine

An experienced pharmaceutical and hospital lawyer, Masaya works with life science clients on research, drug development and clinical matters.

He has experience handling and providing strategic advice in multiple areas including for the conduct of global clinical trials, clinical trial site agreements, master clinical trial agreements, investigator-initiated research agreements, master vendor services agreements, and collaboration agreements. Masaya has extensive experience working with clinical investigators specializing in neurology, cancer, urology and transplant surgery.

EXPERIENCE

NYU School of Medicine

Senior Contracts Specialist

- Worked on clinical trial agreements, investigator-initiated research agreements, collaboration agreements, site sub-agreements and sponsored research agreements
- Supported clinical operations and quality assurance in the conduct of industry-supported clinical research for the departments of neurology, psychiatry, cancer, urology, hepatology, nephrology, transplant surgery and orthopedic surgery

COMMUNITY

Prior to becoming a lawyer, Masaya spent three years as a Peace Corps volunteer in West Africa.

Bar Admissions

- New York

Education

- Brooklyn Law School, JD
- UC San Diego B.A. Mathematics & B.A. Visual Arts